

24th – 25th August:

The International Conference on Sustainable Initiatives (ICSI) successfully organized by MJIT UTM Kuala Lumpur in conjunction with 8th ASEAN Environmental Engineering Conference (AEEC). It was funded and supported by ASEAN Uni-Network Southeast Asia Engineering Education Development Network (AUN/SEED-Net). ICSI was officially open by Vice Chancellor of UTM, Professor Datuk Ir. Dr. Wahid Bin Omar.

According to ICSI Chairwoman, Professor Zuriati Zakaria of MJIT Environmental Engineering and Green Technology (EGT) Head of Department, ICSI 2015 presented a high quality research papers by invited guests. Representative from the AUN/SEED-Net, Mr. Hiroshi Iwadate gave his welcoming speech while Professor Shigeo Fujii of Kyoto University gave his speech during opening address. Plenary lectures were given by Secretary General to Ministry of Higher Education, Dato' Seri Zaini Ujang, Professor Emeritus Saburo Matsui of Kyoto University, Mr. Joseph Tek Choon Ye, CEO and Managing Director of IJM Plantations (M) Berhad and Professor Ian Jonathan Scowen from University of Lincoln. Among the keynote speakers; Professor Satoshi Takizawa of Tokyo University, Professor Shiro Saka of Kyoto University, Professor Yoshihiro Shiraiwa from University of Tsukuba and Professor Zainuddin Abd. Manan, Dean Faculty of Chemical Engineering in UTM Johor Bahru.

Also present the Director of Office of Global Initiatives, Professor Osamu Ohneda from University of Tsukuba.

(write-up by Azma of UT_KL office)

Dato' Seri Zaini Ujang delivered his plenary lecture

Participants and invited speakers

(from left) Prof. Zuriati Zakaria, Prof. Megat Johari, Prof. Wahid Omar, Dato' Seri Zaini Ujang, Prof. Yoshihiro Shiraiwa, Prof. Osamu Ohneda, Prof. Norio Sugiura, Prof. Durrishah Idrus (UTMKL Director) and Madam Siti Salamah (UTMKL Deputy Registrar Corporate Affairs) group photo on the 1st day

Prof. Shiraiwa delivered his keynote lecture

Token of appreciation to the speaker

Group photo on the last day